Andrea Piercy is an experienced trial lawyer, and a member of Hamilton Duncan's commercial litigation group. Andrea has appeared before the British Columbia Supreme Court and Court of Appeal, and routinely assists clients to resolve disputes through settlement and alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.

Andrea's practice focusses on the resolution of business disputes, including those arising from shareholder and partnership agreements, joint ventures, development projects, and instances of negligence and fraud. Andrea has experience advising clients on complex issues relating to contaminated sites, mineral claim ownership and preservation, and commercial lease disputes.

Andrea also routinely advises clients on employment law issues, including advice on employment agreements, the dismissal process, and wrongful termination claims.
