Gurminder is a trial lawyer specializing in commercial, family and insurance litigation. He is known for being a steady hand under pressure and enjoys working closely with clients to distill complex issues. Clients value Gurminder's experience as he proactively assesses cases early, seeing if there's a likelihood of a favourable and cost-effective resolution, or where necessary, a need to see matters through trial. Gurminder's recent cases included:

- Achieving a six figure resolution for a physician before the BC Human Rights Tribunal.
- Drafting a $15 million net worth marriage agreement.
- Representing a corporation in family law litigation.
- Acting for a developer in REDMA litigation.
- Representing a construction company with a multi-million dollar contract dispute.
- Advising owners on property, trespass and easement issues.
- Defending a severe traumatic brain injury case at trial for a private insurer.
- Litigating successfully a 'no negligence' defence at trial involving a motorcyclist.
- Defending allegations of early onset schizophrenia caused by accident related brain injury.
- Negotiating resolution of an insurance claim by a totally disabled physician.

Gurminder has prepared and presented articles on civil litigation throughout his career. His peers elected him to multiple terms on CBA Provincial Council and appointed him to various CBA BC Committees, including the Provincial Court Judicial Advisory Committee. In 2021, Gurminder was elected as Bencher of the Law Society of British Columbia and appointed by the Minister of Justice to the BC Federal Judicial Advisory Committee.
